PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Intuit Mailchimp Atlanta, GA

Senior B2B Marketing Manager 2025 – Present

- Generated $30M+ in incremental pipeline through ICP segmentation, account prioritization, and full-funnel optimization — co-owning pipeline targets with regional Sales leadership and tracking lead-to-opportunity conversion at every stage.
- Delivered 3x QoQ pipeline growth and 25%+ MQL volume increase by architecting integrated ABM and demand programs across paid media, lifecycle, webinars, and field marketing — converting mid-market accounts at scale.
- Owns end-to-end ABM strategy: account selection, intent-signal activation, multi-touch campaign sequencing, and field-based executive experiences — measuring ROI through meetings booked, opportunities influenced, and pipeline contribution.
- Directs webinar strategy as a primary demand channel — managing topic development, speaker coordination, promotional cadences, and post-event nurture paths to maximize attendee-to-pipeline conversion.
- Manages multi-million-dollar B2B marketing budget with disciplined CAC and funnel efficiency modeling, directing spend across paid, owned, and field channels to maximize yield per dollar.
- Serves as primary marketing counterpart to regional Sales leadership, bridging commercial strategy and end-user activation — translating segment-level insights into targeted messaging and channel plans.

Salesforce, Inc. Atlanta, GA

Global Senior Campaigns Manager 2023 – 2025

- Built and scaled a 9-webinar-per-month global demand series generating $155M in marketing-sourced pipeline — one of the organization's highest-performing programs — including end-to-end nurture, landing pages, and post-event conversion paths.
- Produced $30M+ in pipeline within six months of the Agentforce AI product launch by leading globally coordinated, Sales-prioritized demand generation campaigns across EMEA, LATAM, and APAC.
- Built scalable, repeatable campaign frameworks adopted across global regions — standardizing best practices, reducing time-to-market for product launches, and enabling regional teams to execute with speed and consistency.
- Served as strategic GTM advisor to Sales and Marketing leadership across three international theaters, translating global positioning into locally resonant messaging and integrated channel plans.
- Drove executive-level funnel performance reporting using ROI modeling and pipeline capacity analysis — influencing senior prioritization decisions and budget allocation.

Amazon Music Atlanta, GA

Global Lifecycle Marketing Manager 2022 – 2023

- Drove $10M in revenue contribution by designing and scaling behavioral automation, segmented nurture journeys, and personalized lifecycle programs across a global subscriber base.
- Achieved 15% MoM subscriber acquisition growth and 30% engagement lift through advanced segmentation, cross-channel personalization (email, push, in-app), and A/B experimentation.
- Owned end-to-end member journey architecture — mapping subscriber touchpoints from enrollment through activation and retention, reducing funnel drop-off and accelerating time-to-value at global scale.

SurveyMonkey Atlanta, GA

Marketing Operations Manager 2021 – 2022

- Partnered with Sales on enterprise ABM initiatives using Demandbase and Bombora — improving account penetration, increasing sales-qualified pipeline, and reducing sales cycle friction for named accounts.
- Built executive dashboards tracking MQL-to-SQL conversion, pipeline contribution, and campaign ROI — providing leadership with real-time funnel visibility and enabling data-driven investment decisions.
- Managed forecasting, campaign budgets, and performance reporting across North America — strengthening lead routing accuracy and protecting pipeline integrity.

Amazon, Inc. Atlanta, GA
Marketing Manager 2020 – 2021

- Led email GTM strategy, journey mapping, and marketing automation (Marketo) across demand and lifecycle channels — partnering with Finance, Legal, and Operations to deliver scalable, compliant campaigns at enterprise scale.
- Designed new-to-franchise customer nurture flows and GTM journey architecture — mapping the end-to-end experience from merchant acquisition through activation and early engagement.
- Built Amazon Storefront landing pages for new merchant onboarding, partnering with Product and Design to drive enrollment and accelerate time-to-value.
- Owned campaign QA, launch sequencing, and performance analysis across concurrent programs — applying iterative testing to improve open rates, click-through, and downstream conversion.

Georgia-Pacific Atlanta, GA
Sales Enablement Marketing Manager 2019 – 2020

- Launched the company's first sales enablement platform (Seismic) — built the content architecture, messaging framework, and campaign infrastructure used by sellers globally.
- Developed product messaging and campaign materials for both external B2B buyers and internal sellers — enabling field teams to articulate differentiated value at every stage of the sales cycle.
- Served as international marketing counterpart for regional teams across multiple geographies — led marketing discovery calls and localized campaign materials for global market activation.
- Developed integrated digital marketing strategies across email, content, and social to drive B2B lead generation in support of complex, multi-stakeholder sales cycles.

Nebo Agency Atlanta, GA
Digital Marketing Project Manager 2018 – 2019

- Managed integrated digital marketing engagements — web launches, paid campaigns, and conversion tools — for a portfolio of B2B and B2C clients using agile project methodology.
- Built Google Analytics performance dashboards and translated campaign data into strategic client recommendations, directly informing budget reallocation and channel optimization.
- Coordinated cross-functional delivery across design, development, and media teams — maintaining project timelines, client communication, and quality standards across concurrent engagements.

Infomart Atlanta, GA
Digital Marketing Manager 2017 – 2018

- Deployed Marketo from the ground up and established a KPI-based measurement framework — giving the organization its first consistent view of digital marketing ROI across email, web, and social channels.
- Planned and executed integrated campaigns across web, email, and social — owning end-to-end campaign management from brief through launch and performance reporting.

Gypsum Management & Supply Atlanta, GA
Marketing Coordinator 2013 – 2017

- Planned and executed the company's inaugural trade show (4,000+ attendees) — managing end-to-end logistics and vendor coordination, establishing the program as an ongoing GTM event channel.
- Rebuilt the company intranet and launched an internal engagement strategy that improved employee adoption by 75% — demonstrating early ability to drive adoption through user-centered design and change management.
- Managed integrated marketing campaigns across email, print, and digital channels — supporting B2B sales initiatives and building foundational skills in campaign planning, vendor management, and performance tracking.
